Dear Mousumi

Thank you for submitting your ethical review approval for the project listed below.

The University of Southern Queensland conforms to principles of minimising duplication of ethical review for research projects, in accordance with Chapter 5.3 of National Statement on Ethical Conduct in Human Research (2007).

Your project has now been administratively reviewed to ensure that USQ's role in the project has been disclosed duly approved as outlined below. As part of the approval the research team acknowledge that relevant information and advice about this ethical approval may be exchanged with relevant review body/ies. The Principal Investigator will be responsible for informing the ethical review body that reviews and approves the research at all other sites at which the research will be conducted; the name and location of any other body that will conduct an ethical review of the research; and any previous decisions made about the research by other review bodies (in Australia or elsewhere).

USQ HREC ID: H19REA038

Project title: Exploring the impact of attention training on attention difficulties experienced by older adults with or without Mild Cognitive Impairment (MCI).

Approval date: 13/03/2019

Expiry date: 01/02/2022

Project status: Approved (with conditions).

The standard conditions of this approval are:

- (a) conduct the project strictly in accordance with the proposal submitted to the originating registered human research ethics committee and ethics approval, including any amendments made to the proposal required by that committee;
 - (b) advise the USQ HREC (via human.ethics@usq.edu.au) immediately of any complaint or other issue in relation to the conduct of this project which may warrant review of the overarching ethical approval of the project;
 - (c) provide advice via submission of a USQ HRE Amendment for ethical approval of any amendments or revision to the original approved project by the originating registered human research ethics committee prior to implementing any changes;
 - (d) complete and submit a USQ milestone (progress) report as requested, and at least for every year of approval; and
 - (e) complete and submit a USQ milestone (final) report when the project does not commence within the first 12 months of approval, is abandoned at any stage, or is completed (whichever is sooner).
- Additional conditions of this approval are:

- (a) Nil.

Failure to comply with the conditions of approval or the requirements of the National Statement on Ethical Conduct in Human Research (2007) may result in withdrawal of ethical approval for this project. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact an Ethics Officer.

Kind regards

The Human Research Ethics Team
